Regular Meeting Adams County Public Services Building, Othello

October 14, 2009
(Wednesday)

Call to Order @ 9:00 a.m.

Present:

Chairman Rudy Plager
Vice-Chairman Roger L. Hartwig
Commissioner Jeffrey W. Stevens

Budget Workshop – Othello District Court

- Reviewed projected expenditures for interpreter fees
- Discussed the feasibility of one full time interpreter
- Discussed the 2010-2013 pending Public Defender contract
- Discussed record storage issues and efforts to scan current closed files given some inoperable equipment

Budget Workshop – Economic Development

- Reviewed relationship with ACDC and noted that any future data reporting to the State is no longer the responsibility of the county employee
- Discussed need to re-evaluate the co-functioning of several agencies that handle economic development and identifying long and short term goals
- Noted that the county had completed their initial goals and a meeting needed to be scheduled in the near future to determine direction
- Identified several revenue generating avenues for the county
- Concurred with deletion of the 'wind analysis' projected expenditure of $9,000 since that data gathering project has been completed
- Focal Point recap of activities provided

Recycling Building

Paul Stoker, on behalf of the Grant/Adams Conservation District, confirmed acceptance by the District to purchase for $5,000 the recycling building located on the lot at 165 N. 1st, Othello. A sales agreement and title transfer will be prepared for execution by the parties.
