Adams County Fairgrounds

Engineer Johns reported that power at the fairgrounds had been restored. A draft agreement between the Rodeo Association and the county relating to the construction phase and to the future use of a new road for exiting the grounds was presented for initial review and discussion.

The Board by consensus authorized the County Engineer to sign the building permit for the Livestock Sale Building addition provided all structural design documents have been received and reviewed.

Washtucna Mayor Syd Sullivan discussed the proposed town sidewalk project and the proposed extension of the walking path.

The Board went on-site to view the Town's new sewage treatment lagoon.

Adjournment @ 11:30 a.m.
