Economic Development

Economic Development Director McFadden reported on economic development related activities including wind project updates; Adams County Development Council Department of Commerce reporting; and, prospective businesses locating to Othello.

McFadden noted Adams County Development Council, in their attempt to hire an administrative assistant, is requesting contributing funds from Adams County with the level of funding discussed.

An agreement for grant writing for the Adams County Bridge Replacement Project with The Beckett Group was presented for review. McFadden noted the prosecuting attorney has reviewed the document and approved of the same. No action was taken pending the presence of a full Board.

Integrated Health Care Services

Environmental Health Director Timm Taff and Building and Planning Director Loren Wiltse provided information regarding regulations of temporary worker housing in Adams County and jurisdictional authority. Pursuant to WAC 246-359-001(2)...”Such buildings and structures must be licensed by the Washington State Department of Health and under WAC 246-358 WAC and designated as “temporary worker housing”.

Director Wiltse maintains that the state is the permitting agency for temporary worker housing, noting RCW 70.114(A) limits authority to the State Department of Health.

No action was taken pending further review of the process.
